

Westpac Margin Lending Proof of Identification

All Westpac Margin Lending applicants (including individuals, individual trustees, company directors/guarantors, beneficial owners and authorised representatives), who are not existing Westpac customers, must provide certified copies of identification documents in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/CTF Act 2006).

Note: It is an offence under the AML/CTF Act 2006 to knowingly provide false or misleading information or knowingly produce a false or misleading document.

This document details acceptable identification documentation for all persons/entities as mentioned above, who are a party to a Westpac Margin Loan Facility. Please consult the relevant sections that apply to you.

A. Proof of Identification and Certification of Identity Documents for Individuals

Refer to this section if you are:

- An individual/sole trader and/or joint individual borrower
- An authorised representative
- An individual trustee for a trust borrower
- A company director.

If any of the above persons are not existing Westpac customers, they must provide original certified copies of acceptable identification documentation by an approved certifier.

Your identification documents can be certified by either:

1. Your financial adviser – where they have introduced you to a Westpac Margin Loan Facility, have an Australian Financial Services Licence FSC/FPA and 2 or more continuous years of service with one or more licensees. Your financial adviser must complete the appropriate IFSA Identification Form and attach it to your application or request.
2. Any other eligible certifier as listed in the Certified Identification Form (CID) for Individuals which is attached (see Categories of acceptable certifiers). Your certifier must complete this form and attach it to your application or request together with the certified identification documents.

If you are unable to provide the required identity documents, contact us on 1800 816 222 for further options.

B. Proof of Identification and Certification of Identity Documents for Trusts

Refer to this section if the borrower is a trust. Where the trustee is an individual/s, please also refer to Section A above. Where the trustee is a corporate, the company directors must also refer to Section A above.

Trustee borrowers must provide an original certified copy of the dated and stamped (where applicable) trust deed.

Your copy of the trust deed can be certified by either:

1. Your financial adviser – where they have introduced you to a Westpac Margin Loan Facility, have an AFSL and 2 or more continuous years of service with one or more licensees. Your financial adviser must complete the appropriate FSC/FPA Identification Form and attach it to your application together with the original certified identification documents.
2. Any other eligible certifier as listed in the 'Categories of acceptable certifiers' section of the Certified Identification Form.

Document verification procedure

- The certifier will need to print their name, date and qualification/occupation which makes them an eligible certifier on each photocopied document (for guidance on who can certify, refer to the 'Categories of acceptable certifiers' section after the Certified Identification Form).
- The certifier must include the following statement on each photocopied document "I certify that this is a true copy of the original document."
- Photocopies of certified documents will not be accepted. The original certification and signature of the certifier must be visible.

If you need any assistance, please contact us on 1800 816 222 for further options.
